Ethics Committee of the University of Wuppertal Detailed questionnaire for the application

Short description of the study (max. 10 words):
Previous	file number (on	ly for resubmission):		EBUW
When re	esubmitting a r	e insert your answer revised application, ents in the ethics com	please highli	ight in the t
Please	e first refer to po	amework conditions a pints 1 to 3 of the bas the basic questionna	sic questionn	aire. If you an	swered "yes" to one
Other a.	• •	wer the following key e objectives of the pro	•
b.	Characterize tl	ne sample (e.g. exclus	sion criterion	, number of c	ases).
c.	How are the tr	ial participants recrui	ted?

d. Is the voluntary nature of participation ensured? Is information provided about the possibility of withdrawing from participation without consequences?

e. Are participants informed in advance about participation in the study and its content? Is detailed information provided on the objectives and procedures of the study, the duration of the study, the burdens and risks associated with specific study procedures, and the compensation and other promises made to participants?

f. In what form do participants declare their willingness to participate ("informed consent")? Please submit the wording of the participant information. Does it list the planned data protection measures? Does it confirm the voluntary nature of participation in the study and the right to withdraw the declaration of willingness? If the participants (and/or their legal representatives) submit a written declaration, please also submit this in full. Does the declaration of willingness clearly refer to the participant information? In the case of a verbal declaration of willingness by the participants to the trial management, please indicate how this is done and how it is documented.

		questions after the study? Please submit the text of the informed consent form. In the case of an oral explanation, please state the wording as precisely as possible.
	h.	How long will the data be stored?
	i.	Until when can participants request that their data be deleted?
2.	points	nation on procedures, approaches and possible risks: Please refer here to 4 to 10 of the basic questionnaire. If you answered "yes" to one of these points in sic questionnaire, please comment on this point in particular.
	Other a.	wise, please answer the following key questions: If participants are asked to disclose personal experiences or attitudes that are of an intimate nature for them (stressful personal events, sexuality) or whose answers may be perceived as stigmatizing (e.g. illegal or deviant behavior or political beliefs), please explain this aspect of the study and indicate how the privacy of the participants will be protected in the process.

g. Do the participants receive complete information and the opportunity to ask

D.	about the aims of the examination or the procedure? In this case, also explain why deception is necessary.
C.	Are the subjects under particular mental strain (e.g. due to the duration of an activity, aversive stimuli, psychological stress, fear, exhaustion, pain or other negative experiences that go beyond what is to be expected in everyday life)?
d.	Are the subjects physically stressed (e.g. by taking body fluids, by administering substances or by invasive or non-invasive measurements or procedures)?
e.	Information on data protection: What personal data is collected, if any? Are video or audio recordings or other behavioral registrations planned? How is the anonymization of collected data ensured?

3.	If a	pplicable, type and scope of insurance cover for the participants.
4.	a.	Information on the compensation of participants: Please refer to point 11 of the basic questionnaire. If a higher compensation than EUR 12 per hour is planned, please explain the reasons for this.
	b.	Do the participants benefit directly from their participation?